

Northsky Community Guidelines

Last Updated: November 4th, 2025

Introduction

By using Northsky Social applications on the ATprotocol, you are agreeing to abide by the following Community Guidelines. The purpose of these guidelines is to ensure we all work together to maintain a space for the 2SLGBTQIA+ and other marginalized communities that is vibrant, safe, and most importantly brave.

As our communities face increasing pressure to comply with censorious fascism and hide our truth from the world for fear of reprisal, it is more important than ever to have a platform to speak out against injustice and support each other. We live in a time where acceptability politics and tone policing are silencing victims of genocide and demanding we meet bigots who want us dead halfway. We say screw that! Northsky is not a space for this kind of cowardly “safety,” but rather a place where we are free to be ourselves and tell our stories so that all can hear.

Northsky Social Cooperative members will do our utmost to preserve this independent space for us to live out loud and be in community with one another. This means striking a balance between compliance with just laws and legal resistance to unjust ones. For us to uphold this mission as a small volunteer team, we ask for your support in following these community guidelines. Together we can keep each other safe, enriched, and inspired.

Northsky Moderation Approach

This Community Guidelines document is a living document that will change over time in dialogue between Northsky Social Cooperative members and our growing community of users. Our volunteer moderators will action on reports from the community and decide if users are in breach of our Terms of Service or Community Guidelines. Users will be able to appeal decisions by volunteer moderators which will be reviewed by members of Northsky Social Cooperative before a final decision is made.

User behavior found in contravention of the Community Guidelines, or attempting to skirt around them, may result in corrective actions like timeouts, account suspensions, or the removal of illegal content from our server.

If you generate a “Rotation Key”, as we recommend during account creation or migration, you will be able to recover your account to a new PDS (or back to Bluesky’s PDS if your account originated there) even if we permanently suspend your account. We don’t want to hold your data hostage and will only delete illegal content off of our data servers.

We endorse the AT Protocol approach of decentralization and “composable moderation.” As a small team we are not currently equipped to replace all of the functions that Bluesky Moderation provides, but will be focusing our moderation efforts on fighting bigotry, harassment, apologia and remaining legally compliant. We will not have the resources to effectively combat bot farms, spam, nor label all AI-generated content. We plan to evolve our capabilities over time as we grown and gain more funding and recurring financial support. In the meantime, we encourage you to consider subscribing to these labelers of note:

- Northsky Labeler - (Coming soon as part of Northsky Phase 2)
- Blacksky Labeler - <https://bsky.app/profile/blackskyweb.xyz>
- Laelaps Labeler - <https://bsky.app/profile/laelaps.fyi>
- XBlock Labeler - <https://bsky.app/profile/xblock.aendra.dev>
- AI Imagery Labeler - <https://bsky.app/profile/aimod.social>

We will not be adjudicating inter-community discourse. We will step in if someone breaches the Terms of Service or Community Guidelines, but we don’t want to abuse our authority by picking winners and losers in community squabbles.

We also plan on being in open dialogue with our community, but there are limits to what we will divulge about our decision making process and moderation methods, as doing so would provide a roadmap for bad actors to try to circumvent our safeguards or launch bad faith attacks on our members. We take the safety of our cooperative just as seriously as the safety of our users, so we will not tolerate harassment of our members or volunteers.

Our Commitments to Our Community

1. We commit to creating a culture that protects our users from abuse and serious harm while also allowing those who make mistakes a chance to learn and heal the damage, if they are willing.
2. We commit to creating a dialogue with the minority communities Northsky supports so that our reasoning is not opaque when dealing with sensitive intersectional matters.
3. We commit to using the principles of restorative justice when dealing with intracommunity harms that rise to the level of incident moderation, however abusers are not entitled to share space with their victims even after restorative justice has occurred.
4. We commit to making sure that users who are last in line for help and first in line for harm in society are first in line for help and support on Northsky.
5. We commit to telling you, when appropriate and without violating the privacy of others, why we made a certain moderation decision in plain language. This is to build trust with the community and engage in good faith dialogue to improve our moderation policies and practices over time.
6. We commit to protecting our community from corrupting influences that would compromise the mission of the cooperative regardless of profit, power, or personality.
7. We commit to measuring every decision we make as a cooperative against the Commitments outlined above.
